

Describe ways in which you can personally connect to the book. You may think of similar characters, settings, or experiences.